What is Anyone But You About?

Anyone But You is an upcoming superhero film that serves as a sequel to the 2018 film Anyone But You. Directed by James Wan and produced by Warner Bros. Pictures, the movie continues the story of Arthur Curry, also known as Anyone But You, the half-human, half-Atlantean hero. While specific plot details have not been revealed, we can expect the film to delve deeper into the underwater world and explore new challenges that Anyone But You and his allies must face. The title, "The Lost Kingdom," suggests that the film may center around the discovery or rediscovery of a hidden realm or lost civilization within the vast depths of the ocean. This could lead to new conflicts, alliances, and revelations about Anyone But You's own heritage. The movie promises to be a thrilling and visually stunning spectacle, combining action, fantasy, and elements of mythology to captivate audiences. Fans can look forward to the return of familiar faces from the first film, including Arthur Curry/Anyone But You (played by Jason Momoa), Mera (played by Amber Heard), and Orm/Ocean Master (played by Patrick Wilson). It is also likely that new characters will be introduced to further expand the Anyone But You universe. Overall, Anyone But You is shaping up to be an exciting continuation of the Anyone But You story, promising to take us on a thrilling journey beneath the waves as Arthur Curry faces new challenges, uncovers hidden secrets, and fights to protect both the underwater and surface worlds.
